Directions to the School of Education – Creekside South Building – Judson University

In general, Judson is located at the southeast “corner” of the intersection of Illinois Route 31 (State Street) and I-90 (the Northwest Tollway) in Elgin.

Here are more specific directions to find School of Education, housed in the Creekside South building.

From the North:

Via Route 31/State Street:

- While on Route 31, cross under I-90.
- The first light is Davis Road (to the right) / River Road (to the left). The campus will be to your left. Continue through this light, but get in the left lane.
- The next light will be Big Timber (a “T” to the left). Go through this light, but get into the left turn lane. This will be for Jerusha Street (public road), at the blue-roofed A-American storage building.
- Turn left / east on Jerusha, you’ll go down a long and steep hill. Creekside South is at the end of the road on the left.

Via Randall Road:

- Take Randall Road south to Big Timber (stoplight at major intersection.) Turn left (east) on Big Timber.
- Take this until it “T’s” at Route 31. (It will be your 3rd stoplight after turning on to Big Timber.) Turn right, and immediately get into the left turn lane. (CAUTION: You’ll be crossing 2 lanes of traffic to do this, and it’s very difficult when traffic is heavy.) This will be for Jerusha Street (public road), at the blue-roofed A-American storage building.
- Turn left / east on Jerusha, you’ll go down a long and steep hill. Creekside South is at the end of the road on the left.
From the South:

Via Route 31/State Street:

- Take Route 31 / State Street through Elgin.
- As you near campus, there will be a stoplight with a bank on your left, at a railroad overpass bridge. You are now very close.
- After this light, the blue-roofed A-American storage building will be on your right. Turn right at this building; this is Jerusha Street.
- You'll go down a long and steep hill. Creekside South is at the end of the road on the left.

Via Randall Road:

- Take Randall Road north to Big Timber (stoplight at major intersection.) Turn right (east) on Big Timber.
- Take this until it “T’s” at Route 31. (It will be your 3rd stoplight after turning on to Big Timber.) Turn right, and immediately get into the left turn lane. (CAUTION: You'll be crossing 2 lanes of traffic to do this, and it's very difficult when traffic is heavy.) This will be for Jerusha Street (public road), at the blue-roofed A-American storage building.
- Turn left / east on Jerusha, you'll go down a long and steep hill. Creekside South is at the end of the road on the left.

From the East or West via I-90:

- From I-90, exit on Route 31 / State Street SOUTH.
- The first light is Davis Road (to the right) / River Road (to the left). The campus will be to your left. Continue through this light, but get in the left lane.
- The next light will be Big Timber (a “T” to the left). Go through this light, but get into the left turn lane. This will be for Jerusha Street (public road), at the blue-roofed A-American storage building.

ALTERNATIVE DIRECTIONS FROM THE MAIN CAMPUS – or…if you’d like to see the campus...

If you should find yourself on the “main” part of campus, the easiest way to get to the Creekside South is to “meander” through campus (or ask anyone directions) towards the tennis courts (black lines on the map above). In this same location will be the Plant Operations building, and a bridge across the creek. You may park anyplace legally convenient, walk across the bridge, and Creekside South is the building immediately across the bridge.
