Judson University’s Partners in Brilliance is a special program that recognizes corporate partners for their generous support while providing financial assistance to local Judson students. An investment in Partners in Brilliance will make an enormous impact as 100 percent of partnership funds benefit student scholarships. In appreciation for your company’s support, Judson University provides its partners with several exclusive opportunities for marketing and professional development. Through membership in Partners in Brilliance, business leaders will receive a tax deduction, increase the visibility of their company and, most importantly, make a positive impact on tomorrow's leaders.

Join us for a breakfast networking event that will help you see your firm’s financial future more clearly. The breakfast’s featured presenter Armond A. Dinverno, JD, CPA, CFP, will forecast the outlook of the U.S. economy based on the president-elect’s economic policies.

Dinverno, a principal and co-president of Balasa Dinverno Foltz LLC, a wealth management firm based in Itasca, Ill., has extensive experience in the income tax, estate planning, retirement planning, and investment management areas. For three consecutive years, Robb Report Worth magazine named Dinverno one of the “Best Financial Advisors” in America, Mutual Funds magazine included Dinverno in their list of “Top 100 Planners in the Country,” and in Medical Economics magazine Dinverno was listed as one of “The 150 Best Financial Advisers for Doctors.” He was recognized in the book by Stuart Welch, J.K. Lasser’s Estate Planning for Baby Boomers, as a top professional advisor in the estate planning area, and received the TEC Organization Emerging Entrepreneur Member Achievement Recognition. In 2006, he was inducted into the Chicago Area Entrepreneurship Hall of Fame.

Dinverno has served as part of Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. Institutional Advisory Board, which meets with the organization’s top management to discuss what initiatives the company should focused on for its clients. He also testified to President George W. Bush’s Advisory Panel on Tax Reform about the impact of the tax laws on taxpayers’ decisions and their behavior.
