Judson is an evangelical Christian university that represents the Church at work in higher education, equipping students to be fully developed, responsible persons who glorify God by the quality of their personal relationships, their work, and their citizenship within the community, the nation and the world. Through a broadly based education in the liberal arts, sciences and professions, the university enables its students to acquire ideas and concepts that sharpen their insights, develop skills appropriate to their career goals, and develop the skills and commitment for lifelong learning. The Judson community experience challenges graduates to be decisive leaders and active participants in church and society, articulate proponents of Biblical Christianity, persuasive advocates for the sovereignty of God over all life, and effective ambassadors for Christ.
The Annual Report is published by the Judson University Office of University Advancement.
Please read with delight this Annual Report knowing that your name is listed herein because of your faithful gifts to Judson University during the 2010-2011 school year. We are grateful for your support and want to thank you for standing with us through the Great Recession impacting our entire world.

You noticed in 2008-2009 that about 40 percent of your retirement savings and 40 percent of your home value disappeared into thin air. Economists are still analyzing the data and comment daily on the vicissitudes of the stock market as we watch the Dow Jones Industrial Average go up and down while making little progress back to its 2008 high of 14,000.

Like your home budget, Judson University has been impacted by these changes. That is why our thanks this year is so sincere in acknowledging how you have stayed with us and made your regular gifts to our mission, in spite of the economic reversals you have personally experienced. Thank you. Thank you.

Judson will be a good steward of whatever resources are provided to us. If we receive five talents, two talents or only one talent, we will never bury that gift in the ground and whine about the difficulty of our situation. We will be grateful for even the widow’s mite and will work hard to expand it to meet the needs of our students.

As we near the end of the calendar year for 2011, the half-way mark in the 2011-2012 school year, I am glad to report that Judson is financially stable and focused on our mission. We continue to do the work of the church in higher education without apology or compromise. I am very grateful for your generosity toward Judson knowing the future is as bright as the promises of God.

Cordially,

Dr. Jerry B. Cain

As I look out my office window in the administration building, it seems as though the 90 acres of Judson University have never been more beautiful! The brilliant red and orange colors of the leaves are shimmering from the cool autumn breeze, yet the rustling is muffled by the sounds of our students walking and conversing about their day. It truly is an exciting time to be a part of the Judson family.

The shifting season from fall to winter brings a reminder that change is in the air. As most of you know by now, change is coming to the President’s Office at Judson University. Dr. Jerry Cain and First Lady Linda will retire June 30, 2012, and that allows for many opportunities to honor and thank them for their 14 wonderful years at Judson. Please join us in wishing them well as they embrace the glorious retirement so appropriate for two who have shown amazing dedication to advancing the mission and ministry of Judson University.

For all of the prayer warriors reading this Annual Report, thank you in advance for the daily prayers you will say on behalf of the next president. There are many exciting days ahead at Judson and we believe God will bless our community by calling yet another dynamic Christian leader to our campus.

Thank you again for your faithfulness to our students – many of whom would not be here without your support. You impact eternity through your kindness toward Judson University.

God’s best to you and your family,

Tory Gum
Many college-bound students that visit Judson University notice a couple different aspects that spark their interest. Many value the beauty of the campus and sense the peace, comfort, and being with God. The native prairies, blooming trees, green rolling hills, and stream flowing through campus come as a welcoming atmosphere and a source of encouragement. Others feel the friendly atmosphere of pleasant, forthcoming students and professors alike that make them feel at home. Both of these elements captivated LeStan Hoskins which made his decision to come to Judson a simple one.

LeStan, a Christian Ministries major, understands the value of higher education. Being able to build relationships with professors on a personal level is highly treasured and respected by many students. The professors have had a great impact on LeStan. "Professors here really care about your education, and more importantly, your relationship with Jesus Christ," says LeStan.

He has also been blessed with a great connection with Dr. Burris, director of Academic Assistance. "She has always been a person with a listening ear to encourage me to keep working towards my goals. She is like a coach," says LeStan.

God holds a special future for LeStan. He is currently deciding whether to go to seminary or proceed directly to serve in the ministry. No matter where God leads him, he will have his trust in the Lord.

One of his favorite verses from the Bible comes from Proverbs 3:5-6, which says: “Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight.”
The following honor roll of Lifetime Giving includes all cumulative gifts to Judson University through June 30, 2011.

Why Give to Judson?

Academic Excellence
Since our founding in 1963, Judson University has demonstrated a deep commitment to providing its students with the highest quality education. Judson students are able to learn from a diverse faculty of the finest Christian scholars. Over 80% of our teaching faculty hold a terminal degree in their discipline. What is more, every member of the faculty has a personal testimony of faith in Jesus Christ and are active in their local church. At Judson, not only do students learn the very best in their discipline of study, they are also challenged to grow in their faith in Christ. Through your support of Judson University, you have a part in ensuring that Judson’s tradition of providing academic excellence and Christian principles will continue to impact students today and in the future.

Christian Leadership
It only takes a short time for one to watch, listen or read the local news to realize that this generation is facing tough challenges. These challenges are impacting families, businesses, churches, nonprofit organizations and governmental agencies on the local, national and global levels. As our national leaders look for solutions to these challenges, Judson University is busy training the finest Christian leaders who, through their education at Judson, will serve as the next generation of leaders provide solutions to today’s challenges. Christian leaders trained at Judson University will have the academic training and the Christian knowledge necessary to lead their families, organizations and possibly the nation, forward.

Changing Lives
An investment in Judson University changes lives. Each year more than 1,250 young adults come to Judson University to seek higher education and insight into their role within society. During a student’s tenure at Judson, their life is changed. In addition to gaining academic knowledge, Judson students learn about ministry and the world. Students are encouraged to attend at least one short-term missions trip during their time at the University. Additionally, Judson students participate in several community development programs to mentor local students from low-income areas of the community. As such, through your support of Judson University, you are making an impact on the life of a Judson student. In turn, that student you are investing in is making an impact on other lives through short-term missions and community mentoring. What a great opportunity to be part of a cycle of impacting lives positively for Christ.

The Light of the World
Judson University’s motto “Christus lux mundi” or “Christ the light of the world” is an important part of Judson’s culture. Upon completing a degree at Judson University, graduates are taught to go out into the world following Christ’s example and shine. Alumni have demonstrated Christ’s light in many fields. Some have gone on to become business leaders, others have become educators, many enter the ministry, still more have become architects. Judson alumni have the distinction of being leaders in their field; who shine for Christ, wherever their path may lead. Through your support of Judson University, you are investing in the lives of a future alumnus or alumna who will go forward to impact the world for Christ.
Sitting in on a marketing class with Professor Thomas Voigt is absolutely refreshing. The energy, bursts of laughter, and moments of contemplation are experiences that are cherished in the classroom. Professor Voigt’s students are constantly encouraged to strive for excellence and professionalism through student led discussions, live cases and field trips. Enabling students to take a more hands-on approach to their education allows them to sharpen their critical thinking skills and grasp what real-world marketing is like.

“There is something significant about giving a student the chance to stand and share with the class what they have learned. It helps students retain information and build their communication skills,” says Professor Voigt.

Recently, Professor Voigt launched Judson’s new three-year Business Administration degree with a concentration in marketing for students interested in earning a business degree in 33 months. This offers students a program that can save them time and money. It also provides students with the opportunity to complete their degree in a time frame ahead of other universities around the world.

In addition to applying real-world marketing applications in class, Professor Voigt values the opportunity to enhance lectures with biblical teachings. His favorite book to apply is Proverbs. “It’s not every university you work for that allows you to tie the word of God to your teaching,” says Professor Voigt. “I also like to hold the students up in prayer. My prayer for students is from the Psalms: May the favor of the Lord our God rest upon us, establish the work of our hands for us, yes, establish the work of our hands. Psalm 90, v 17.”

Professor Voigt truly enjoys the openness of the faculty, working together with a common goal which is to equip students to be fully developed, responsible persons who glorify God by the quality of their personal relationships, their work, and their citizenship within the community, the nation and the world.

“I don’t like what I do, I love it,” Professor Voigt states.

“It’s not every university you work for that allows you to tie the word of God to your teaching.”

– Professor Thomas Voigt
Burma Society

$10,000 and above

After being ordered out of India by the British East India Company, Adoniram Judson and his wife moved to Burma, a nation known to be impermeable to Christian evangelism. Determined to reach the people of Burma, Judson and his wife set out to familiarize and acclimate themselves with the Burmese culture. He held his first public meeting in April of 1819 and 15 men attended. By the time Adoniram died, he left the Bible fully translated to the Burmese language, 100 churches, and over 8,000 believers. Membership in the Burma Society represents a dedication to furthering the Kingdom of God through the work done here at Judson.

Ann “Nancy” Judson Society

$5,000 - $9,999

On February 5, 1812, Adoniram Judson married Ann Hasseltine. Throughout his ministry Ann proved to be an incredible model of supreme courage and loyalty, facing trial after trial alongside her husband, as well as facing innumerable hardships on her own while Adoniram was imprisoned for 17 months. After only 14 years of marriage, Ann died on October 24, 1826, at the young age of 37. Membership in the Ann “Nancy” Judson Guild represents a loyalty and commitment to the University as the church at work in higher education.

To date, Judson University has been overseen by five different presidents. History has shown that each one of the five believed that where people come from isn’t nearly as important as where they are going. With such a mindset, leadership is action, not position. In the Judson administration, it is commitment—not authority—that has always produced results. As a member of the President’s Society, donors are commended for their contribution to the furthering of those results in the lives of our students at Judson University.

Sarah Judson Guild

In April of 1835, after having completed the Burmese translation of the Bible, Adoniram Judson was married for the second time to Sarah Hall Boardman, widow of fellow missionary George Boardman, after the death of his first wife, Ann. Adoniram and Sarah had eight children together, five of whom survived to adulthood. The faithful commitment of those in the Sarah Judson Guild to the mission of Judson University is a testimony to their commitment to God at work in the lives of students as they are equipped both spiritually and academically.

John 4:34-36 says, “Jesus said to them, ‘My food is to do the will of Him who sent me, and to finish His work. Do you not say, ‘There are still four months and then comes the harvest?’ Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, for they are already white for harvest! And he who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit for eternal life, that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together.’” The faithful giving of those in the Sower’s Guild represents the sowing of seeds in the lives of our students here at Judson University.

As a six-year member of the Judson Board of Trustees and pastor to Second Baptist Church, Rev. Dr. Nathaniel Edmond has been an integral part of ministry in the Elgin community that the two institutions share.

Edmond received his Bachelor’s Degree from Xavier University in Louisiana and is a graduate of the Executive Management Program from Cornell University in Ithaca, N.Y. He completed the Young Pastoral Training Classes at the National Baptist Sunday School Congress and is also a certified counselor who has extensive experience in family, marriage and teen counseling.

When Edmond first learned about Judson, he was immediately drawn to the idea of Judson as a place that is both “truly college and truly Christian,” as he describes it. Edmond explains that both Second Baptist and Judson University shared a common goal: evangelism in the community. The two institutions soon became natural partners in ministry under his leadership.

Among the many ways that Edmond exercises his roles as Second Baptist pastor and Judson trustee, he has brought the two together to celebrate Martin Luther King Jr. Day on campus every year for nearly a decade. The Second Baptist choir leads the music for the MLK chapel service and Edmond shares a message with students, a tradition that has become a campus favorite.

More recently, Edmond took on another leadership responsibility as the university planned its inaugural World Leaders Forum, an event that brought former U.S. President George W. Bush to campus on April 13, 2011. The event was established to begin raising funds for the school’s new Entrepreneurial Studies program. Edmond volunteered as a trustee representative for the World Leaders Forum and eagerly took on the task of rallying support among other trustees and friends of Judson.

“I wanted to support Judson in entrepreneurial studies because I believe that small businesses run by educated men and women are the future of prosperity in our country,” says Edmond of his volunteer work for the event. “I was also excited at the prospect of allowing students the opportunity to hear directly from world leaders. The office of the President is itself important; for students to be in the same room as someone who held the office, someone that was once one of the most powerful people in the world, is an opportunity they need.”

This year, Edmond is again working with Judson and its trustees to plan for the second World Leaders Forum in 2012. Edmond assured that the event would again serve as a great opportunity for Judson to connect with the community and highlight values of principled leadership.

As he continues to work with Judson to bring world leaders to campus, Edmond himself exemplifies the kind of leadership that Judson is eager to instill in its students. The community relationships created as a result of his leadership and service remain a vital part of the Judson experience in Elgin.

“It is important that I think that working with Judson and its students is a part of my job here on earth. Second Baptist believes in contributing and building the surrounding community, and we consider Judson a part of that task,” says Edmond. “We’re so grateful for the opportunity to work hand-in-hand with them.”
Endowed Scholarships

The following honor roll of Endowed Scholarships includes all cumulative gifts to Judson University through June 30, 2011.

An Endowed Scholarship represents a “perpetual gift.” Income earned on endowment investments in excess of the scholarship award is held for scholarships in future years. An investment of $10,000 will establish a newly endowed scholarship and may be completed over a three-year period.

Gerry Craddock has a long history of supporting Judson University. She and her family moved to Judson in January 1967 at the request of Dr. Amos Barton. She had worked with Dr. Barton’s construction business in Towanda, Ill. When he came to Judson as the second president, Gerry and her husband came to serve as secretary to the president and superintendent of buildings and grounds. They lived in Volkman Hall with their three young daughters before the close quarters forced them to find a new home.

When Dr. Barton resigned for health reasons after four years, Gerry was asked to stay on by the incoming President, Dr. Harm Weber. Dr. Weber was a founding trustee of the college and pastor of Covenant Baptist Church, Detroit, Mich.

“As many know, Dr. Weber was an excellent speaker who spent a lot of time meeting people and raising monies for the school,” Gerry remembers. “Those were difficult years. There was much opposition within the national leadership of the American Baptist Convention, who believed that the school would not make it. Dr. Weber was determined that this would not happen—and here we are today. A number of trustees resigned from the board early in his tenure and they were difficult days. There were a couple of times during that period that staff and faculty would not have been paid had a certain trustee not stepped in and covered those payroll periods.”

Gerry worked with Dr. Weber for 22 years. During his tenure several buildings were added to the campus, including Herrick Chapel, Alice and Edward Thompson Center, Lindner Campus Commons, and Lindner Fitness Center. She believes that much of the campus growth can be attributed to the untiring efforts of Dr. Weber.

Following Dr. Weber’s retirement, Gerry continued to provide dedicated service by staying on as secretary for President James Didier for five years. Dr. Didier’s work in the community was greatly appreciated and she attributes the addition of the Elgin Inn (now Lindner Tower) to the campus.

In 1996, Gerry retired from her role to move to Florida. When she returned to Elgin in 1998, Gerry returned to Judson. She served as an assistant to President Jerry Cain’s assistant and has filled in often for the President’s office. Now, she serves as part-time receptionist.

Over the years, Gerry has loved the contact with students and guests. She has always loved the students, often remembering several for their unique, God-given talents.

“Judson ‘gets in your blood’ and has continued to mean so very much to me and my family.”

–Gerry Craddock
It’s never too early to begin thinking about your legacy or to shape your estate plan. Contrary to what many people think, you don’t need to be a millionaire to have an estate plan. An estate plan is an important part of any ongoing financial planning process.

Your legacy transcends money — it also encompasses your values. Your wishes and dreams may include using your assets to help secure your family’s future or you may choose to support another cause close to your heart. This might be your favorite charity, your community, or your place of worship, to name a few.

Elements of an Estate Plan

A will lets you specify your wishes, including how you want your property distributed, who will administer your estate and who will care for your minor children.

A trust holds your assets for the benefit of one or more people (you, your spouse, your children). You’ll need an attorney’s assistance to create a trust.

Life insurance proceeds are paid to a beneficiary at your death.

Gifts are transfers of property made during your life to family, friends or charity.

Tax exclusions are available as important estate planning tools. Consult your tax professional for details.

Please call the Advancement Department to learn more about Estate Planning at 847-628-2080.

Giving Opportunities

The Annual Fund
Support of the Judson University Annual Fund is essential to ensuring that the mission of Judson University continues to be fulfilled. Over 90 percent of Judson students need additional financial assistance above and beyond what is provided through government grants and loans.

Restricted Funds
Would you like to support a specific area at Judson University? The University has established several restricted funds in order to provide you the ability to designate your gift toward a specific purpose.

University Endowment
A robust and healthy endowment fund is a vital component of the institution’s long-term strength and stability. Due to the generous support of faithful donors throughout its history, Judson has been able to establish an endowment fund near $10 million. When giving a gift for an endowment purpose, the principal amount of the gift is given to the University with a stipulation that the funds are invested to earn annual income rather than be spent immediately.

Judson Endowment Fund
The Judson Endowment Fund provides support for the University’s annual operating costs. Donors who would like to make a long-lasting impact on Judson’s future but do not have a strong preference as to how the proceeds of the endowment are used can make gifts of $10,000 or more to the Judson Endowment Fund.

Endowed Scholarship
A donor may establish an endowed scholarship with an investment of $10,000 or more. Larger initial gifts will create scholarships with larger annual awards. Through the naming of the scholarship, the donor(s) is able to honor or remember a loved one, friend or professor.

Endowed Chair
For a faculty member to be awarded the distinction of being the recipient of an endowed chair is one of the highest honors within the academic community. It currently requires about $2 million to fully fund an endowed chair, of which the annual income is used to provide for the salary and scholarly development of the recipient. Donors may contribute to an existing endowed chair fund, or may choose to establish a new endowed chair.

Endowed Professorship
An endowed professorship specifically offers assistance by providing a gift that will be invested to ensure an annual stipend that will be used to support the faculty members’ continued scholarly development and research. With a gift of $100,000, a donor can honor a professor that has made a significant impact on his or her life or the donor may choose to name the professorship in honor or memory of another important person in his or her life.

Endowed Facility
As with any institution, each of the existing campus facilities require upkeep and maintenance, while older facilities need remodeling and modernization. The cost to endow an existing Judson facility can range from $1 to $10 million (depending on the facility of interest).

Memorial & Tribute Giving
A Memorial/Tribute Gift is a thoughtful way to honor a friend or relative while providing meaningful support to Judson University. Go to judsonu.edu/give for a form.

Planned Giving
There are a variety of options that are available to donors who wish to support Judson University and also provide themselves a life income. One such option is called the Charitable Gift Annuity which can offer a substantially better interest rate than the average bank Certificate of Deposit. Another is called a Bequest with which a donor can include Judson University in their will. To learn more about planned giving options, please contact the Office of Advancement at 847-628-2080.
Thank you, thank you, thank you! I am very grateful for your continued generosity toward Judson University. Your gifts have made a big difference in many young people’s lives and with your help we continue to do the work of the church in higher education.

As you read in this report, the financial condition of Judson University for the 2010-2011 academic year was much better than the rest of the world! We were able to stay in the black, and we were good stewards of the resources God provided.

The biggest blessing we have is you, our good friend who believes in our mission. We pray that God continues to bless you and your loved ones.

I want to do the best to serve you, so please do not hesitate to contact the Advancement team if you have any questions or if we can be of help to you. Please send us an email with updates in your life that you would like the Judson community to know about at advancement@judsonu.edu. Also, see the updates to our website where you will be able to make a contribution via our secure site at www.judsonu.edu/give.

I look forward to hearing from you or visiting with you in the near future.

Blessings,

Dr. Angelo G. Bravos
Director of University Advancement
An admirer of Adoniram Judson tells us that in the late years of his life a friend asked him the question,

“Sir, if you could invest in the Kingdom Work how would you do it?”

Judson replied, “I would invest in the Kingdom of God through a small Christian College back in America, where in training young men and women you are planting seed corn of the Earth.”
