

Graduate Credit at Judson University's Literacy in Motion Conference June 21-23, 2022

Interested participants must register and pay to attend the conference in addition to registering and paying for graduate credit. They are two separate registrations. Conference registration information can be obtained at www.judsonu.edu/LiteracyinMotion. For more information on receiving graduate credit – read on!

LIT 500 Topics in Literacy

Course Description: This course will follow a conference format and will be based on a series of literacy presentations provided during twelve hours of contact time spread over a three-day period. The conference will feature some of the most well-known and highly respected researchers, authors, and presenters from the fields of reading, writing, and literature in the U.S. and Canada. The audience size will be limited to no more than 225 participants in order to provide students with the opportunity for more personal interaction with the speakers throughout the conference.

- This course is available for 1 or 2 hours of graduate credit.
  - Cost is $450.00 per hour of graduate credit. Note: A student must be registered for the Literacy in Motion Conference at Judson University prior to or simultaneously with registering for graduate credit. The cost of conference registration is a separate required fee that is not connected with payment for graduate credit in any way.
  - Registrations for graduate credit will not be accepted after June 1, 2022.
- 1) To receive one hour of graduate credit: The student will attend a minimum of 10 hours of presentations at the Literacy in Motion Conference at Judson University. Attendance will be monitored and documented.
  - 2) To receive two hours of graduate credit: The student will attend a minimum of 10 hours of presentations at the Literacy in Motion Conference at Judson University. Attendance will be monitored and documented. The student will also prepare a power point presentation based on information gained through one or more of the sessions attended at the conference. The power point presentation should be suitable for delivery at a staff meeting. It should be exceedingly well done with a minimum of 25 content-oriented slides, strong flow, transitions between and among ideas, and superior writing mechanics. Slides should adhere to a professional format: remaining in the same color scheme, design/style, and font throughout. The power point will be placed on a flash drive and mailed to Dr. Kristy Piebenga, Judson University, 1151 N. State Street, Elgin, IL 60123, the instructor of record for course LIT 500, by July 22, 2022. Late assignments will not be accepted.
