

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

Performance Certificate in Music

The Performance Certificate in Music at Judson University is a non-degree program designed for individuals looking for an intensive music performance study both as a soloist and an ensemble musician in order to enhance their employment opportunities or prepare for graduate studies.

Students will develop their performance skills by working with the dedicated Judson music professors in applied lessons. This program offers a unique course, Professional Apprenticeship, in which students will have an additional opportunity to refine their skills by taking lessons from artist-teachers in the Chicagoland area who actively maintain their successful performing careers. A baccalaureate degree in music or equivalent level of performance skill is required. In addition to submitting this application, applicants must schedule an audition with the faculty of the Music Department at Judson University.

NOTICE OF DECISION

Decisions regarding admission are determined by the Director of Performance Certificate in Music Program and the faculty of the Music Department at Judson University.
