Evening and Irregular Class Periods:

- ✓ Evening classes (scheduled between 5 and 10 pm): meet as usual during finals week. Finals exams are given on the last day of class.
- ✓ All other classes (scheduled outside normal calendar or time periods): final exams are given during the last class meeting, before the four day exam period. If needed, the instructor may contact the registrar's office to arrange a classroom to meet during the exam period.

Important Reminders:

- ✓ Every class meets during its scheduled examination time and attendance is required, whether or not a final examination is given.
- ✓ Students are required to take final exams as scheduled.
- ✓ A faculty member may require or excuse a graduate from an exam.
- ✓ A student who has more than three final exams during one day of the exam period, may petition the Registrar for a make-up exam on a different day.
- ✓ Do not schedule early plane, train or bus departures. Students sharing rides must delay departure from the campus until all riders have completed final exams.
